

19 January 2023

"51st Golden Guitar Awards to be broadcast on 41 radio stations across 5 states"

Tamworth Broadcast Services TBS (96.3fm/88.9fm), has joined with B Radio Network to broadcast this Saturday's Golden Guitar Awards to an estimated 1.2 million listeners on 41 community stations. Bunnings Warehouse will sponsor the awards' broadcast on all stations to be heard in capital cities, major regional centres and rural markets.

CEO of B Radio Network, Mr. Gary Smith, said "B Radio Network are pleased to have Bunnings Warehouse as major sponsor of this prestigious event coverage including, the Red-Carpet artists arrivals, a special production of the Awards artist and full coverage of the awards presentation this Saturday night". He went onto say "the radio coverage will be heard in 5 states - Queensland, NSW, Victoria, Tasmania and South Australia". Gary said, "the coverage will be an enormous boost for the Awards and will reach such a large audience across Australia, showcasing country music talent. This is the first major event for B Radio Network, with more planned over coming months."